MISSIONS
Abidjan, Cote d’Ivoire
(abi-JAHN) - "It's Vacation Bible School time around the world, but Abidjan VBS is surely the most fun in all the world!" writes a member of the Abidjan Urban Team. "The church I attended in the United States did a great job with VBS, and we usually had around 500 children and 200 workers. Imagine my amazement when our first year of Abidjan VBS was 150 children and 10 workers, and we all survived! Children here are often overlooked when it comes to the gospel, but we will be having our third year of VBS in which we will be teaching, singing, playing, and crafting the Good News. Pray as we try to tailor songs, stories, and games to fit this culture. Petition for workers for the VBS harvest field. As scared as I am to say this, pray that the Lord will send more and more children to hear of the love that He has for them. Pray for all the parents we will ask to come on the last day to hear what their children did all week and to hear about Jesus themselves. And if you think of us between June 26 and June 30, pray that we will all survive and walk away with a stronger faith and a testimony of the wonderful acts of our amazing God!"
